

Mary Carol Mooney, RN, MSN
Associate Director
Department of Standards

Mary Carol Mooney is an associate director in the Department of Standards Interpretation Group at the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations. In this position, she provides interpretation of standards for the hospital, home care, long term care and behavioral health care accreditation programs. Mooney also serves as a Joint Commission surveyor. In addition, she consults in the development and revision of standards and survey processes.

Prior to joining the Joint Commission, Mooney served as director of Home Care Services at LaGrange Community Nurse in LaGrange, Illinois. She was responsible for the management of staff and home care patient services. Mooney has been in the health care profession for over twenty-two years in several capacities including twelve years of hospital nursing experience in medical-surgical, neurosurgery and labor and delivery patient care.

Mooney received her bachelor of science degree in Nursing and her masters of science degree in Community and Family Nursing Administration from Lewis University in Romeoville, Illinois.