

Elizabeth S. Droske, M.S.N., C.R.N.P.

Elizabeth Droske received her nursing diploma with commendable clinical/highest honors recognition from the Shadyside Hospital School of Nursing; her Bachelor of Science in nursing, cum laude, from LaRoche College; and her Master of Science in nursing (psychiatric primary care nurse practitioner) from the University of Pittsburgh School of Nursing.

Ms. Droske is presently the clinical care coordinator for the Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic (WPIC), where she performs staff development and nurse clinician oversight. She has held a number of positions at WPIC, including nurse clinician manager for aging and adult inpatient services; acting nurse clinician manager, geriatric inpatient services; assistant nurse clinician manager, geriatric inpatient services; psychiatric nurse, geriatric inpatient services. She began her career as staff nurse in the medical/surgical unit at Forbes Regional Hospital, Monroeville, PA.