

FACULTY

“Building for Tomorrow: Creating a Patient-Centered Built Environment in Behavioral Healthcare Facilities”

A telephone training from the National Association of Psychiatric Health Systems (NAPHS)

June 21 and June 28, 2006
2pm-4pm Eastern (each day)

CASE STUDIES:

Each day of the training will begin with a case study from a facility that has undergone recent construction and/or renovation. The case studies will feature:

- Spring Harbor Hospital (part of MaineHealth) in Westbrook, ME, which built a 100-bed treatment and recovery center from blueprint to complete three-dimensional space in 22 months,
 - Dennis P. King, CEO, Spring Harbor Hospital; Vice President for Behavioral Health, MaineHealth

- and Sheppard Pratt Health System in Baltimore, MD, which has undertaken facility-wide renovation as well as new construction.
 - Tom Hess, Special Assistant to the President

EXPERT PANEL:

An expert panel, including individuals with diverse perspectives on the process of building a clinically appropriate environment, will also join the case studies faculty to share their experiences and field questions. Panelists come from diverse organizations, including:

- Alexian Brothers Behavioral Health Hospital
 - Francine McGouey, Chief Operating Officer
- Avera McKennan
 - Steve B. Lindquist, ACSW, Executive Director, Behavioral Health Services
- Behavioral Health Centers, Carolinas HealthCare System
 - William Drury, Director, Special Projects and Support Services
- Hall-Brooke Behavioral Health Services
 - Thomas Smith, M.D., Medical Director
- New York-Presbyterian Hospital
 - Gail Ryder, Administrative Director Behavioral Health
 - Doug McGrath, Director of Facilities at NYP - Westchester
- Princeton House Behavioral Health
 - Richard Wohl, Vice President Behavioral Health
- Psychiatric Solutions, Inc.
 - William Land, Director of Facilities Operations
- SSM Health Care – St. Louis
 - John Eiler, EVP - Network Behavioral Health Operations
- Timberline Knolls
 - Chris Stout, PsyD, CEO

MODERATOR:

NAPHS Director of Clinical and Regulatory Affairs Kathleen McCann, R.N., D.N.Sc.

FOR A REGISTRATION FORM,
GO TO WWW.NAPHS.ORG OR CALL 202/393-6700, ext. 106.