

GET READY FOR HIPAA...

WITH AN AUDIOTAPE / HANDOUT PACKAGE

*Learn what psychiatric and addiction treatment providers need to know to get ready to meet new, complex HIPAA privacy and security requirements

- ✓ Hospitals could spend as much as $22.5 billion in the next 5 years complying with HIPAA provisions, according to an analysis commissioned by the American Hospital Association. (Modern Healthcare, December 18-25, 2000)
- ✓ Nearly three quarters of payers and providers expect to need help from outside consulting firms to complete their HIPAA compliance programs. (AHA News, December 11, 2000)

Learn to be a savvy consumer as your behavioral health system prepares for HIPAA. Hospitals, health plans, and others covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) must prepare now to comply with tough new standards for protecting the privacy and security of health information. Your behavioral health system will need to revamp for this dramatic change – in a very short period of time. Use this two-hour audiotape training to identify smart questions to ask as you review your internal policies and procedures. The workshop is presented by the National Association of Psychiatric Health Systems (in cooperation with the National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers) exclusively on the implications of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) for behavioral health providers.

FACULTY:

✓ Mark Lutes, Partner, Epstein Becker & Green, Washington, DC

Mr. Lutes is a well-known health regulatory lawyer who counsels provider and payor clients on healthcare information confidentiality and security. He also serves on a number of advisory boards on e-health matters.

✓ Matthew Weinstein, President, Managed Networks of America, Virginia Beach, VA

Mr. Weinstein is a respected behavioral healthcare expert with experience in bridging communications between providers and payers. His company provides management services to a broad variety of public and private behavioral providers with a number of specialized programs for corporate compliance and operating systems implementation.
