National Association of Psychiatric Health Systems

★ 2007 Membership Directory ★

The National Association of Psychiatric Health Systems' (NAPHS) 2007 Membership Directory is a comprehensive referral resource providing information on the nation's behavioral healthcare systems. The directory is designed to help clinicians, admissions staffs, employee assistance directors, school counselors, nursing home staffs, librarians, legal system personnel, and others who must quickly identify sources of help for individuals with psychiatric and addictive disorders. The directory includes the name, address, phone/fax, and officers (by name) of each behavioral health system. The facilities operated by each system—including specialty hospitals, psychiatric units in general hospitals, residential treatment centers, partial hospital programs, and outpatient centers—are also listed. To help locate services in particular states, a geographical listing of facilities—including the name of the chief operating officer of each—is included.
Price: $35.
